'Innovation & Competitiveness in Health & Patient Care via Public & Private Partnership'

'Til Eleven Morning Insights YB Datuk Seri Dr. Dzulkefly Ahmad, Minister of Health, Malaysia

Bandar Sunway, 8 March 2019 – The Asian Strategy & Leadership Institute (ASLI) organised 'Til Eleven Morning Insights with YB Datuk Seri Dr Dzulkefly Ahmad, Minister of Health, Malaysia at SunMed Convention Centre. The theme of the conversation was 'Innovation & Competitiveness in Health & Patient Care via Public & Private Partnership'. Tan Sri Dato' Dr Ramon Navaratnam, Chairman, ASLI Centre for Public Policy Studies (CPPS) in his opening address highlighted the private sector's strong commitment to work closely with the government, specifically, the Ministry of Health in building a strong, and sustainable health policy and programme in Malaysia.

In his presentation, YB Datuk Seri Dr Dzulkefly Ahmad, Minister of Health, Malaysia asserted the government's commitment to continuously work hard in improving health and patient care in Malaysia.

The minister also reiterated the need for a continuous robust collaboration between the public and private sector to deliver the finest health and patient care services to the Malaysian public. He applauded Sunway Group Healthcare Malaysia for their excellent and comprehensive healthcare services.

In a lively panel session that followed, moderated by Ms. Firoz Abdul Hamid (ASLI), YB Datuk Seri Dr Dzulkefly Ahmad, Minister of Health, Malaysia urged both the public and the private sector to keep abreast of tech trends in healthcare services to offer an accessible, efficient and quality health and patient care for all Malaysians.

'Til Eleven Morning Insights is a series of panel discussions addressing critical topics in the field of business, economics, sociopolitics, sustainable development, journalism, civil society as well as arts and culture. These are pertinent issues affecting our national competitiveness.

These sessions are catered for C-Suite Leaders in the public and private sectors.

It comprises an hour-long panel discussion, engaging prominent figures in their fields of expertise, followed by an open discussion with the audience. The panels are preceded by a power networking session among industry leaders over breakfast.
